

Washington County Community Circles

A NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION

WCCC Volunteers Needed

Are you interested in...

- Learning more about the Restorative Justice process?
- Making community connections and getting to know your neighbors?
- Repairing harm caused by offenders in your county?
- Learning about conflict mediation?
- Discovering the circle process and its history?

Then We Have a Great Opportunity for You!

Decisions made in Circles are most meaningful and have the greatest chance of success when they reflect a community decision-making process. Community members are invited to volunteer and participate in Circles in their communities.

Circles currently exist in the following communities:

Cottage Grove, Stillwater and Woodbury

Please call (651) 492-4996 or email contact@peacemakingcircles.org to volunteer!!

Repairing harm to victims, holding clients accountable and building a better community.

Learn more at www.peacemakingcircles.org